

Dinu's Song

To: Dinu

From: Manisha

VERSE 1

Late night city, lights spinning around
You pull me in close, feet barely on the ground
Wherever we land, every street is our floor
Lost in your orbit, always needing more

PRE-CHORUS

Your eyes catch the strobe, always shining bright
Laugh lines under neon, turning wrong into right

CHORUS

Dance with me, no matter where we go
Heartbeat sync, in the afterglow
You're the reason I want this life to move
Spin me in your arms, you got nothing to prove
Everybody calls you Mr.GQ—
But I get the backstage view
Yeah, I get the real you

VERSE 2

Colgate smile, you light up the room
Personality that undresses my gloom
We're chasing the sunrise, skipping through time

Every moment with you—electric, divine

PRE-CHORUS

Jetlag and laughter, just say my name
No city, no language ever feels the same

CHORUS

Dance with me, no matter where we go
Heartbeat sync, in the afterglow
You're the reason I want this life to move
Spin me in your arms, you got nothing to prove
Everybody calls you Mr.GQ—
But I get the backstage view
Yeah, I get the real you

BRIDGE

All the moving crowds, all the distant lights
Fade to a hush when you hold me tight
Across every border, in every tune—
Home is just me and you

CHORUS

Dance with me, no matter where we go
Heartbeat sync, in the afterglow
You're the reason I want this life to move
Spin me in your arms, you got nothing to prove
Everybody calls you Mr.GQ—
But I get the backstage view

Yeah, I get the real you

OUTRO

We'll keep dancing, we'll keep spinning

Every night, we're just beginning

In the world's wild view

I'm always choosing you
