

Grace on Grace

To: Grace

From: Hannah

Love you, Mom. Always blessed by you!

Grace, I see you in the quiet of the morning. Coffee and an open Word, the sun just starting. Whispered prayers before the day begins. You light a candle for each of us, again and again. You gave us love that never counted costs. Patience when we faltered, faith when we were lost. Hands that held us, words that made us strong. You are the melody inside this grateful song. Every lesson, every story, You spoke hope into our days. Your gentle mercy shaped us. In sweet and steady ways. Grace, you're the heart of our home. Leading us closer to Jesus, never alone. For every sunrise devotion, every tear you've prayed away. On this Mother's Day, we honor you today. Grace, you're our foundation—our shelter, our praise. Through every season, you were standing firm. In laughter and in sorrow, teaching us to turn. Back to faith, back to love, back to truth. Every path we walk now starts because of you. Every kindness, every moment, Is a legacy you give. With open arms, you show us. What it means to truly live. Grace, you're the heart of our home. Leading us closer to Jesus, never alone. For every sunrise devotion, every tear you've prayed away. On this Mother's Day, we honor you today. Grace, you're our foundation—our shelter, our praise. If love is a promise, I see it in your eyes. You've built us on faith that never denies. Through every storm, we'll hold to what you've shown. Because of you, we know we're never on our own. Grace, you're the heart of our home. Leading us closer to Jesus, never alone. For every sunrise devotion, every tear you've prayed away. On this Mother's Day, we honor you today. Grace, you're our foundation—our shelter, our praise. Grace, on this Mother's Day. We thank God for you—our foundation, our Grace.
