

Lavender Skies

To: Olivia
From: Ethan

Happy anniversary, Liv. You're the best part of my world.

VERSE 1

Coffee spilled across the floor,
You laughed, I grabbed some napkins,
Didn't know that saving lattes
Would lead to something magic
You smiled at me, I saw the start
Of a brand new kind of art
It's been you and me in every scene
Since that first spark

PRE-CHORUS

You're the calm while I'm a storm,
The lavender in my world of grey
Somehow you make life feel soft and warm
When you look at me that way

CHORUS

Olivia, happy anniversary
Every day with you feels like a piece of poetry
You're the sun going down over Charleston sea
Stealing my hoodies, my heart, all of me

You laugh 'til you snort, I live for that sound
I'm better, I'm brighter whenever you're around
Olivia, you bring out the best in me

VERSE 2

We chased the golden hour on that old wooden pier
Your hand in mine, nothing else was ever clear
You said it feels like home, I said me too
Every memory made, I wanna make it with you

PRE-CHORUS

You're the peace in my confusion,
The lavender in every day
Somehow you make chaos feel like music
When you look at me that way

CHORUS

Olivia, happy anniversary
Every day with you feels like a piece of poetry
You're the sun going down over Charleston sea
Stealing my hoodies, my heart, all of me
You laugh 'til you snort, I live for that sound
I'm better, I'm brighter whenever you're around
Olivia, you bring out the best in me

BRIDGE

You're more than just my favorite song
You're every reason I keep holding on

If this is love, I want it endlessly
With you beside me

CHORUS

Olivia, happy anniversary
Every day with you feels like a piece of poetry
You're the sun going down over Charleston sea
Stealing my hoodies, my heart, all of me
You laugh 'til you snort, I live for that sound
I'm better, I'm brighter whenever you're around
Olivia, you bring out the best in me

OUTRO

Yeah, Olivia, you bring out the best in me
Happy anniversary
