

Joel's Song

To: Joel

From: Mel

Happy 17 year anniversary of being together I hope there is many more wonderful years together. I will always love you, Mel

Saw you first in neon light, Galaxy spinning on a stranger's night. Smiles exchanged, but the timing was off. Your hopeful heart, my hand with someone else's lock. But time, she's kind, and fate rewinds— Found you again down a different line. Seventeen years, still catch your eye. Just like that first time. From hands in the dark to hearts on the line. We talked 'til the dawn, let the world wait behind. Hey Joel, with you, it all feels right. You're my Monday morning, my Saturday night. Let's keep dancing in the kitchen. Laughing in the hall. Every Tuesday night, you're there when I fall. Travel the world or just sit on the floor. With Norman between us, I couldn't ask for more. You're my best friend, my heart, my one. Let's grow old together, but stay young. Wedding bells and wild sunflowers. August heat, those honeymoon hours. Remember the joy, remember the ache. All the memories, even the ones that break. You hold me close in the hardest times. We work out together, we work through life. Cassidy's smile—your love in her eyes. You step right in and you make things shine. From Casablanca nights to a movie at home. Pearl ring shining, never feel alone. You found your oyster, you never let go. Now every day, I want you to know— Let's keep dancing in the kitchen. Laughing in the hall. Every Tuesday night, you're there when I fall. Travel the world or just sit on the floor. With Norman between us, I couldn't ask for more. You're my best friend, my heart, my one. Let's grow old together, but stay young. If life is a song, you're my favorite part. Stardust and sweat, you ignite my heart. All these years later, you're still the one. Here's my hand, let's outrun the sun. Let's keep dancing in the kitchen. Laughing in the hall. Every Tuesday night, you're there when I fall. Travel the world or just sit on the floor. With Norman between us, I couldn't ask for more. You're my best friend, my heart, my one. Let's grow old together, but stay young. Yeah, you're my best friend, my heart, my one. Let's grow old together, but stay young.

Swoonsong